

1. General Rules

The committee is moderated by the moderator assigned by the Secretariat. General rules including scope, quorum, dress code and powers of the secretariat are governed by ECOMUN 2017 rules of procedure and code of conduct. For language and courtesy, please see section "Notes". The rules governing courtesy are not covered under ECOMUN 2017 rules of procedure.

2. Powers of Moderator

In Council of Ministers of Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the Council will be moderated by Joseph Stalin. Vyacheslav Molotov will be the co-moderator for the Council. Moderators have the jurisdiction to approve or reject directives submitted by members, other than personal directives, and will moderate the debate. The vote of Joseph Stalin is determinant while submitting a collective directive. Motions or points may be overruled by the moderator and are not subject to appeal.

3. Powers of Secretariat of CMUSSR

Secretariat of CMUSSR has the jurisdiction to implement the directives after they are approved by the moderator, respond to personal directives. Secretariat also has the power to injure, kidnap, heavily torture, physically force and brutally kill the characters of the committee. Members of the Council agree to participate in all types of crises for the sake of the simulation.

4. Rules Governing Substantial Matters

The cabinets' substantial documents are directives. Directives must be signed by the members who request the directive to be implemented. Directives must be detailed, and within the jurisdiction of submitter.

Collective Directive: Collective directive is a directive signed by all members of the council. Collective directive also needs to be approved by the moderator and secretariat.

Ministrial Directive: Ministrial directive is a directive to gather information from the Secretariat or to implement an action within the powers of the ministry of the minister that submitted the directive. Ministrial directives do not require approval from the moderator.

Personal Directive: Personal directive is a directive to take personal actions that is not within the concerns of the ministries that the ministers lead. Personal directives might be either private or public, depending on the intention of the member.

Military Directive: Military directive can only be submitted by Joseph Stalin. The directives can be relocation of the forces, reforming the army, controlling military technology, revising military spendature, altering the strategies, taking offensive actions and et cetera. All of the members of the council may participate in drafting the directive, and every minister can sign them.

Press Release: Press releases are obliged to include the signature(s) of the member(s) of the council.

Communication Paper: Communication Paper is only used when getting in contact with a state or organization. Communicational efforts of the USSR will be conducted using Communication Papers.

Intelligent Directive: Intelligent Directive is only used when Ministers decide to conduct actions using the KGB. Intelligent Directives do not need all of the members of the council to sign it, however, vote of Joseph Stalin is necessary to send the directive.
